

Total Compensation Statements

An on-demand, web-based solution

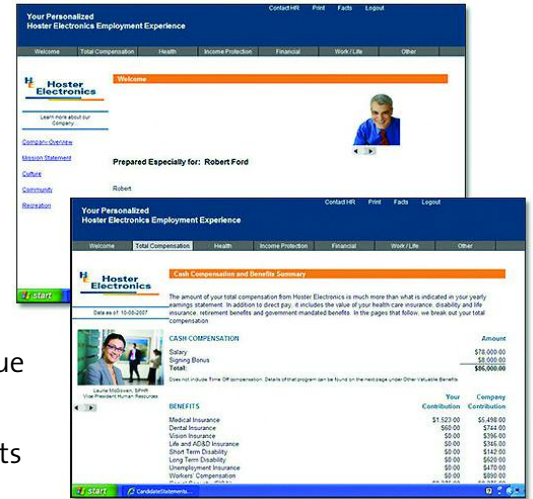

Custom Communications' TotalComp is a web-based solution that empowers companies to communicate the true value of total compensation to their employees, new hires and candidates.

Total Compensation Statements are a great way to attract and retain employees, boost employee morale and illustrate, in concrete terms, how vital each employee is to your organization's success.

Custom Communications' on-demand, web-based platform creates high-end online and print total compensation statements quickly, easily and cost effectively. Our solution allows employees convenient access to all their benefits and compensation information throughout the year.

Key Features and Benefits

- › Fully branded for your organization
- › Personalized welcome messaging
- › Shows all cash compensation and benefit programs
- › Reports estimated tax savings
- › Displays total compensation value
- › Informative benefits content
- › Highlights other valuable benefits
- › Displays time-off compensation
- › Provides retirement and stock option information
- › Ability to refresh data throughout the year
- › Includes Frequently Asked Questions and links to carriers and other resources

With TotalComp, you can:

- › Create a personalized website for each employee
- › Create a personalized print statement for each employee
- › View or print statements virtually anytime
- › Produce new hire statements as needed
- › Create candidate statements through the Candidate Module

Our standard TotalComp offering is functional; however, it may also be customized to suit your organization's requirements. Our platform offers multiple- or single-page websites, plus the ability to easily print statements and convert them to PDF format. Additionally, our TotalComp solution is available in Spanish.

TotalComp is fully hosted and maintained by Custom Communications.

For additional information about Custom Communications' TotalComp solutions: Contact Jackeline Fina, at 860.602.3918 or jfina@custom-comm.com – or Kellie Riccelli, at 860.602.3914 or kriccelli@custom-comm.com.